Please consider the below as my statement of June 22, 2020, based on my individual recollection of the timeframe for which the letter dated June 11, 2020 from the Office of Congressional Ethics regarding its Request for Information:

I, Kendall J. Dunn, as of this date have no recollection of any service(s) which I would have provided to Palazzo for Congress (Rep. Steven Palazzo’s congressional campaign committee), Rep. Steven Palazzo, Lisa Palazzo (Belvin), Paul Breazeale or anyone acting on their behalf, in or about January 2019. Therefore, I have no descriptive information to provide related to the nature of services, location of services, the process of hiring for such services, the dates the services were performed, and the amount of payments for such services.

Although I have no recollection of the aforementioned services for which the Request for Information seeks to investigate, I conducted a review of my personal records in an attempt to fully comply with the Request for Information and found no documents or communications related to services identified in Request No. 1.

Notwithstanding the above, I have known Rep. Steven Palazzo and members of his family since college and have had the opportunity to speak with him over the years on several occasions and consider him a personal friend.

Enclosed with this Statement is an executed Request for Information Certification provided at the request of the Office of Congressional Ethics.

Signed this the 22 day of JUNE, 2020.

Kendall J. Dunn

Team P,

In an effort to strengthen our internal controls we will be freezing all AMEX cards within 30 days. Please identify any official campaign monthly re-occurring charges that are on the card as we will need to direct them to the primary card holder.

Also this is a good time to assess if we still need those services and please let us know what those services are for.

Authorized and official campaign expense reimbursements will be completed by filling out an expense reimbursement form and attaching receipts that provide details of the purchase so our treasurer can accurately identify the transaction for reporting purposes.

Any questions please contact myself or Hunter or myself.

Regards,

Steven

INFORMATIONAL STATEMENT FOR MISSISSIPPI PROPERTY CONDITION

DISCLOSURE STATEMENT (PCDS)

In accordance with Sections 89-1-501 through 89-1-527 of the Mississippi Code of 1954, as amended, A TRANSFEROR/SELLER of real property consisting of not less than one (1) nor more than four (4) dwelling units shall provide a Property Condition Disclosure Statement when the transfer is by, or with the aid of, a duly licensed real estate broker or salesperson. The required Property Condition Disclosure Statement shall be in the form promulgated by the Mississippi Real Estate Commission (MREC) or on another form that contains the identical information. The Property Condition Disclosure Statement may not be personalized in any fashion. All "Forms" which have been promulgated and approved by the Real Estate Commission for use by licensees in real estate transactions may be found at www.mrec.ms.gov.

PURCHASER RIGHTS & CONSEQUENCES OF FAILURE TO DISCLOSE:

If the PCDS is delivered after the Transferee/Buyer has made an offer, the transferee may terminate any resulting real estate contract or withdraw any offer for a time period of three (3) days after the delivery in person or five (5) days after the delivery by deposit in mail. This termination or withdrawal will always be without penalty to the Transferee and any deposit or earnest money must be promptly returned to the prospective purchaser (despite any agreement to the contrary).

LICENSEE DUTIES & CONSEQUENCES OF FAILURE TO FULFILL DUTIES:

The Mississippi Statute requires real estate licensees to inform their clients of those clients' duties and rights in association with the completion of the Property Condition Disclosure Statement. The failure of any licensee to inform their client of the clients' responsibilities could subject the licensee (salesperson and broker) to censure, suspension, or revocation of their respective real estate licenses. The licensee is not liable for any error, inaccuracy or omission in a Property Condition Disclosure Statement UNLESS the licensee has actual knowledge of the error, inaccuracy or omission by the Transferor/Seller.

IMPORTANT PROVISIONS OF THE LAW:

 The PCDS shall not be considered as a warranty by the Transferor/Seller.
 The PCDS is for "disclosure" purposes only and should NOT be included or become a part of any contract between the Transferor/Seller and the Transferee/Buyer.
 The PCDS may not be used as a substitute for a home inspection by a Mississippi Licensed Home Inspector or for the issuance of any Home Warranty Policy that the Transferor/Seller or Transferee/Buyer may obtain.
The purchase or sale of any Appliances or items considered Personal Property should be negotiated by the Parties as part of the Contract of Sale and the ownership interest(s) should be transferred by a Bill of Sale.

LIMITATION TO EXCLUSIONS/EXEMPTIONS:

If, during the period of ownership, the Transferor/Seller has requested or authorized any repairs, has replaced or repaired any of the mechanical equipment, has initiated any action or activity which could be documented on the PCDS or has actual knowledge of information which might impact a transferee's/buyer's decision to purchase the residence, Transferors/Sellers are obligated to complete those specific portions of the PCDS which are applicable to that information.

A known (material) defect is a condition found within the property that was known by the Transferor/Seller at the time of the listing or was discovered prior to a transaction being finalized and the defect results in one of the following:

(a) The defect has an adverse effect on the market value or marketability of the residence.

(b) The defect significantly impairs the health or safety of future occupants of the residence.

(c) If not repaired/removed/replaced, the defect shortens the expected normal life of the residence.

The Transferor/Seller is REQUIRED to sign the Property Condition Disclosure Statement when the transaction is finalized in order to verify and confirm that there have been no material changes to the residence since the original Disclosure Statement was executed by the seller(s).

CONFIRMATION OF UNDERSTANDING:

INFORMATIONAL STATEMENT FOR MISSISSIPPI PROPERTY CONDITION

DISCLOSURE STATEMENT (PCDS)

In accordance with Sections 89-1-501 through 89-1-527 of the Mississippi Code of 1954, as amended, A TRANSFEROR/SELLER of real property consisting of not less than one (1) nor more than four (4) dwelling units shall provide a Property Condition Disclosure Statement when the transfer is by, or with the aid of, a duly licensed real estate broker or salesperson. The required Property Condition Disclosure Statement shall be in the form promulgated by the Mississippi Real Estate Commission (MREC) or on another form that contains the identical information. The Property Condition Disclosure Statement may not be personalized in any fashion. All "Forms" which have been promulgated and approved by the Real Estate Commission for use by licensees in real estate transactions may be found at www.mrec.ms.gov.

PURCHASER RIGHTS & CONSEQUENCES OF FAILURE TO DISCLOSE:

If the PCDS is delivered after the Transferee/Buyer has made an offer, the transferee may terminate any resulting real estate contract or withdraw any offer for a time period of three (3) days after the delivery in person or five (5) days after the delivery by deposit in mail. This termination or withdrawal will always be without penalty to the Transferee and any deposit or earnest money must be promptly returned to the prospective purchaser (despite any agreement to the contrary).

LICENSEE DUTIES & CONSEQUENCES OF FAILURE TO FULFILL DUTIES:

The Mississippi Statute requires real estate licensees to inform their clients of those clients' duties and rights in association with the completion of the Property Condition Disclosure Statement. The failure of any licensee to inform their client of the clients' responsibilities could subject the licensee (salesperson and broker) to censure, suspension, or revocation of their respective real estate licenses. The licensee is not liable for any error, inaccuracy or omission in a Property Condition Disclosure Statement UNLESS the licensee has actual knowledge of the error, inaccuracy or omission by the Transferor/Seller.

IMPORTANT PROVISIONS OF THE LAW:

 The PCDS shall not be considered as a warranty by the Transferor/Seller.
 The PCDS is for "disclosure" purposes only and should NOT be included or become a part of any contract between the Transferor/Seller and the Transferee/Buyer.
 The PCDS may not be used as a substitute for a home inspection by a Mississippi Licensed Home Inspector or for the issuance of any Home Warranty Policy that the Transferor/Seller or Transferee/Buyer may obtain.
The purchase or sale of any Appliances or items considered Personal Property should be negotiated by the Parties as part of the Contract of Sale and the ownership interest(s) should be transferred by a Bill of Sale.

LIMITATION TO EXCLUSIONS/EXEMPTIONS:

If, during the period of ownership, the Transferor/Seller has requested or authorized any repairs, has replaced or repaired any of the mechanical equipment, has initiated any action or activity which could be documented on the PCDS or has actual knowledge of information which might impact a transforee/buyer's decision to purchase the residence, Transferors/Sellers are obligated to complete those specific portions of the PCDS which are applicable to that information.

A known (material) defect is a condition found within the property that was known by the Transferor/Seller at the time of the listing or was discovered prior to a transaction being finalized and the defect results in one of the following:

(a) The defect has an adverse effect on the market value or marketability of the residence.

(b) The defect significantly impairs the health or safety of future occupants of the residence.

(c) If not repaired/removed/replaced, the defect shortens the expected normal life of the residence.

The Transferor/Seller is REQUIRED to sign the Property Condition Disclosure Statement when the transaction is finalized in order to verify and confirm that there have been no material changes to the residence since the original Disclosure Statement was executed by the seller(s).

CONFIRMATION OF UNDERSTANDING:

INFORMATIONAL STATEMENT FOR MISSISSIPPI PROPERTY CONDITION

DISCLOSURE STATEMENT (PCDS)

In accordance with Sections 89-1-501 through 89-1-527 of the Mississippi Code of 1954, as amended, A TRANSFEROR/SELLER of real property consisting of not less than one (1) nor more than four (4) dwelling units shall provide a Property Condition Disclosure Statement when the transfer is by, or with the aid of, a duly licensed real estate broker or salesperson. The required Property Condition Disclosure Statement shall be in the form promulgated by the Mississippi Real Estate Commission (MREC) or on another form that contains the identical information. The Property Condition Disclosure Statement may not be personalized in any fashion. All "Forms" which have been promulgated and approved by the Real Estate Commission for use by licensees in real estate transactions may be found at www.mrec.ms.gov.

PURCHASER RIGHTS & CONSEQUENCES OF FAILURE TO DISCLOSE:

If the PCDS is delivered after the Transferee/Buyer has made an offer, the transferee may terminate any resulting real estate contract or withdraw any offer for a time period of three (3) days after the delivery in person or five (5) days after the delivery by deposit in mail. This termination or withdrawal will always be without penalty to the Transferee and any deposit or earnest money must be promptly returned to the prospective purchaser (despite any agreement to the contrary).

LICENSEE DUTIES & CONSEQUENCES OF FAILURE TO FULFILL DUTIES:

The Mississippi Statute requires real estate licensees to inform their clients of those clients’ duties and rights in association with the completion of the Property Condition Disclosure Statement. The failure of any licensee to inform their client of the clients’ responsibilities could subject the licensee (salesperson and broker) to censure, suspension, or revocation of their respective real estate licenses. The licensee is not liable for any error, inaccuracy or omission in a Property Condition Disclosure Statement UNLESS the licensee has actual knowledge of the error, inaccuracy or omission by the Transferor/Seller.

IMPORTANT PROVISIONS OF THE LAW:

The PCDS shall not be considered as a warranty by the Transferor/Seller.
The PCDS is for "disclosure" purposes only and should NOT be included or become a part of any contract between the Transferor/Seller and the Transferee/Buyer.
The PCDS may not be used as a substitute for a home inspection by a Mississippi Licensed Home Inspector or for the issuance of any Home Warranty Policy that the Transferor/Seller or Transferee/Buyer may obtain.

The purchase or sale of any Appliances or items considered Personal Property should be negotiated by the Parties as part of the Contract of Sale and the ownership interest(s) should be transferred by a Bill of Sale.

LIMITATION TO EXCLUSIONS/EXEMPTIONS:

If, during the period of ownership, the Transferor/Seller has requested or authorized any repairs, has replaced or repaired any of the mechanical equipment, has initiated any action or activity which could be documented on the PCDS or has actual knowledge of information which might impact a transferee's/buyer's decision to purchase the residence, Transferors/Sellers are obligated to complete those specific portions of the PCDS which are applicable to that information.

A known (material) defect is a condition found within the property that was known by the Transferor/Seller at the time of the listing or was discovered prior to a transaction being finalized and the defect results in one of the following:

(a) The defect has an adverse effect on the market value or marketability of the residence.

(b) The defect significantly impairs the health or safety of future occupants of the residence.

(c) If not repaired/removed/replaced, the defect shortens the expected normal life of the residence.

The Transferor/Seller is REQUIRED to sign the Property Condition Disclosure Statement when the transaction is finalized in order to verify and confirm that there have been no material changes to the residence since the original Disclosure Statement was executed by the seller(s).

Thank you, and we can get started.

MR. BROWN: All right. Thank you,
Mackenzie. So with that, we are on the record.

This is Jeff Brown with the Office of Congressional Ethics. With me is my colleague, Helen Eisner. We are interviewing Former Staffer C. Today is August the 8th, 2020. It is about 12 minutes after 10:00 a.m.

MS. EISNER: Sorry, I think it's actually August 11th.

MR. BROWN: August 11th. Excuse me.

Former Staffer C has been given a copy of the false statements warning and has signed an acknowledgment. And with that, we'll begin.

INTERVIEW BY COUNSEL FOR THE OFFICE OF CONGRESSIONAL ETHICS

BY MR. BROWN:

Q So Former Staffer C, we've discussed some of your background previously. And, you know, I understand we've got limited time this morning. So we'll just jump into some of the topics that we'd like to ask you about.

And I want to start with some questions about personal errands. Now, it's my understanding from speaking with some of your colleagues -- your former colleagues, that is -- that official staffers in Representative Palazzo's office have been asked to perform personal errands for the Congressman. And this would have been during official work hours. What did you witness in that respect?

A    I don't know that I would ever have witnessed someone being asked. If they were doing something for him, I would have not known what they were doing.

If they left the office to go take care of something, I would have just -- if I happened to be in the office, I would have just seen them out of the office.

Q    Did you ever hear from anybody or was there ever any chatter in the office that individuals were leaving the office to perform errands of any kind for the Congressman?

A    Not that I recall.

BY MS. EISNER:

Q    Did you see people leave the office in the middle of the day without explanation?

A    They would be -- there were times where different staff would be gone, but I assumed they either had a meeting or were taking care of maybe a doctor's appointment or something like that. So most of the time, I was not there to see them leave. I really didn't ask where they were going.

BY MR. BROWN:

Q    We heard from a couple staffers that the Congressman's dry-cleaning or laundry would have to be picked up on occasion, and we were told that you were an individual that would have to pick that up on occasion. Did you ever have to pick up the Congressman's dry-cleaning?

A    No.

Q    No. Okay. Did you ever hear anything about the Congressman -- or, individuals having to get laundry or dry-cleaning to or from the Congressman's car while it was at the airport?

A    Not that I recall.

Q    How about grocery shopping? Have you ever heard anyone talking about having to do grocery shopping of any kind for the Congressman, for his family, or for any of his kids?

A I don't recall anybody doing any shopping trips or anything of that nature, other than if somebody was getting something for the office like, you know, refreshments or something in the office.

Q How about assistance with the kids? Did you ever witness or did you ever hear that any official staffers were assisting the Congressman with preparing his kids for summer camp, driving them around, babysitting, anything along those lines?

A You know, I mean, I know we would see the kids sometimes in the office, but I don't know if they were preparing for something or --

Q So I, you know, gather from some of what you explained to us that you weren't necessarily in the office all -- you know, a full day. So I guess I'd like to elaborate.

In light of the questions that I have just asked you, would you have been in a position to have witnessed staffers, you know, again, being asked to assist with dry-cleaning, or grocery shopping, or helping the kids?

A    Not during my day, you know, in the office. Like I said, most time it was first thing in the morning, and then I was, you know, out in the field traveling.

Q    So, you know, in other words, the better part of your day may have been spent outside of the office?

A    Most of the time, yes.

Q    Okay. And so you may not have been -- you weren't necessarily working alongside the individuals who were in the office for a full day.
Okay.

MS. EISNER: Jeff, can I jump in for a second here?

BY MS. EISNER:

Q    Based on what you observed, you know, during your time working in the office, what was your impression of how self-sufficient the Congressman was?

A    He seemed very self-sufficient.
Q And what are you basing that on?

A Just my personal experience interacting with him. I never had him ask me to go anywhere or take care of anything, to my knowledge, outside of the office. And he seemed to be very self-sufficient.

Q What about his reliance on some of the more senior leadership in the office, people who have been there a while? Let's start with Bridgette. How would you -- how would you characterize that?

A As far as?

Q Their relationship and the types of things that he relied on her to do.

A I don't know what he would have relied on her to do. And I mean, I'm just trying to think back. I don't recall if -- I'm trying to think through.

Like I said, it's been a long time since I've worked in that office. I mean, other than just being -- her, you know, being the office manager, I don't know what he would have personally relied on her for, or anything that I saw.

Q    Okay. What about Michele?

A    I know that they had many conversations, but those I was not privy to. You would just know that, you know, the Congressman and her had conversations or the boss had called.

But I don't know what those conversations entailed as far as if he needed something. Usually, he was calling looking for reports or information, you know, if there was something going on in D.C. that related to the District.

BY MR. BROWN:

Q    And how about Leslie?

A    I would say probably the same. If they had any communication, again, I wasn't there to overhear it, other than for his scheduling requests was all I ever sat down and discussed with her.

Q    Have you ever heard of the River House?

A    Can you be more specific?

Q    Is it -- have you ever heard of a property called the River House?

A    I know the Congressman had a property on the river.

Q Just tell me what you know about that -- the River House.

A That he had a property that was on the river. I believe it was his parents -- or his, I'm not sure.

Q Have you ever been there?

A Yes, probably two or three times, maybe.

Q And what were those occasions?

A One time, just road out there on the way out of town, and the Congressman had pointed it out, you know, as -- you know, like I said, I can't remember if it was a family property or his. And he had pointed it out and, you know, talked about how nice of house it was. That was it.

Q How about the other occasions?

A It would have been the same thing. Just going out there on the way out to check on it.

It's kind of in a -- not remote location, but it's the only house on the road in a kind of commercial area.

Q So you would be going out there with the Congressman, you said, to check on the place?

A    Or if he was -- you know, as we were going out somewhere, an event, we may have passed by there.

Q    When you went there, did you ever meet other individuals there?

A    No.

Q    So you never -- you would go with the Congressman to the River House. Would you stop and would you get out at the River House, or was this just drive-bys?

A    No, one time we did walk through it and outside of it. He was showing me all the -- you know, it was an older house -- and showing some of the characteristics of it.

Q    Was there a specific purpose why you guys stopped there?

A    Not to my knowledge.

Q    And do you remember roughly when this was?

A    No.

Q    Were you aware that the River House was 1 up for sale at any point?
2 A Not to my knowledge.
3 BY MS. EISNER:
4 Q During the occasion when you walked 5 through briefly and he was just showing you the 6 house, was anyone living there?
7 A I don't believe so.
8 Q Was it furnished?
9 A There were some old pieces of furniture
10 and things inside of there.
11 Q Did it seem like it was in good 12 condition?
13 A Yeah, for the age.
14 BY MR. BROWN:
15 Q Did you ever attend any campaign events
16 at the River House?
17 A No.
18 Q Are you aware of whether or not the River
19 House was used as a campaign space of any kind?
20 A I had heard that they had used it for 21 some event, but I don't know when. I don't know if 22 that was prior to him getting elected or during his time there.

Q    Did you ever hear any other staffers -- official staffers or campaign staffers -- discuss the River House or mention the River House?

Q    Not with me.

Q    Did you ever here of or witness any staffers going out to the River House?

A    I didn't witness any going out there, if they did.

Q    Did you ever hear anybody else in the office say that they had been to the River House or were going to the River House?

A    Not that I can recall.

BY MS. EISNER:

Q    What about in your conversations, you know, however brief they might have been, with the Congressman about the River House? Did he mention any repairs that he was performing on the home?

A    No, not that I can recall.

BY MR. BROWN:

Q    How about work with contractors?

A    The same. I don't really know who would have been out there or if any contractors would have been being called to that property.

Q    What about work with real estate agents?
Did the Congressman ever talk about trying to sell the property or working with real estate agents?

A    Not that I can recall with me.

BY MS. EISNER:

Q    What about in conversations with other people in the office -- people like Bridgette, Michele, Leslie -- did any of them ever mention real estate agents?

A    Not in my presence that -- when I was there. Like I said, most of the time I was not in the office.

Q    Did you hear about it through someone else? Is that possible? Just clarifying what you mean by "not in your presence."

A    No. Just that. Not that I recall hearing. Or if they did, I was not there.

MR. BROWN: Did you have anything else on the River House, Helen?

MS. EISNER: No, go ahead.
MR. BROWN: Okay.

BY MR. BROWN:

Q    Do you know Kyle Palazzo?
A    I know who he is, yeah -- the Congressman's younger brother.

Q    Have you ever met him?
A    I have a few times.

Q    All right. Do you guys have any relationship outside of the Congressional Office or the campaign that you did?
A    No.

Q    Are you aware of -- at some point, did he live in Alabama?
A    I don't know where he stayed.

Q    Okay. Are you aware that at some point he was working in the Congressman's Congressional Office?
A    No, not that I was aware of.

Q    So when you were -- when you were working in the Congressional Office, was Kyle Palazzo ever spending time in the Congressional Office?
A    Not during my time in the Congressman's
